

香港樹仁大學
HONG KONG SHUE YAN UNIVERSITY

Hong Kong Shue Yan University
Institutional Development Scheme

Centre of Interdisciplinary Research in EVIDENCE-BASED PRACTICE

Hong Kong Shue Yan University

Evidence-Based Practice International Conference 2019

Evidence Matters: "What Works" for Learning and Teaching

October 25, 2019

CALL FOR PAPERS

The conference now is seeking submission on evidence-based practice research papers with the contents in conceptual analysis, design implementation or performance evaluation. The topics could be including, but not limited to, teaching and learning in practice, education policy and administration, child and family education and health education. Other related topics will also be considered.

Format

- Oral Presentation
- Poster Presentation
- Demonstration

Rules and Guidelines

Oral or Poster Presentation

1. Submission of abstract within 500 words is required, with research objectives, proposed methodology and a discussion of expected outcomes.
2. Completed research papers, student papers, case studies, work-in-progress research, research note, agenda and proposal related to evidence-based practice are welcome.
3. Individual or multiple authors are welcome.
4. Once the submission is accepted, at least one of the authors must present at the conference.
5. The language of the papers must be in English or Chinese only.
6. The reference style must be in APA format.
7. Abstract should be prepared in MS WORD or PDF (version 1.7 or above) format in single-spaced with one-inch margin and fonts in 12 points Times New Roman.

8. Oral presentation will consist of three to four presenters in a 75-minute session. Presenter is expected to present the paper and answer audience's questions within 20-25 minutes. The presentation slides should be in PPT or PDF (version 1.7 or above) format.
9. Poster presentation will be displayed in a designated area. Corresponding author is required to present the poster at the conference. Poster format should be prepared according to the template provided.
10. Accepted paper abstracts will be printed on our conference proceeding.
11. High-quality conference papers will be considered for publication with the Asia Pacific Journal of Counselling and Psychotherapy upon mutual agreement.

Demonstration Session

1. The demonstration session aims to introduce new or exploratory research work, hardware, software, skill or technique in teaching and learning.
2. Submission summary within 200 words is required including the following information:
 - The title of the session, a statement of objectives, a description of the intended audience in the demonstration session
 - A brief description of hardware, software or other equipment to be demonstrated
3. Each session is 75 minutes.
4. All conference attendees are welcome to attend the demonstration session.

Important Dates

- Deadline for submission: September 9, 2019
- Review Process: Within 3 weeks after submission
- Presentation announcement: September 25, 2019

Enquiries

Tel: (852) 2804 8579

Email: Connie Chan kkchan@hksyu.edu / Joseph Lam hhlam.ids@hksyu.edu